ABOUT US

Redberry Hues is an art supplies store with 2 locations in California, one in San Francisco and one in San Jose. The San Francisco location is nearby Academy of Art University, making it accessible to students living on campus. The stores feature a wide range of art materials, including canvases, clay, sketchpads, paint brushes, etc. Redberry Hues hires artists or art students, so customers can get more informed advice.

Sustainability is one of our key value at Redberry Hues, and all of our store brand products are sustainably sourced and packaged.

Redberry Hues is best known for the paints we manufacture. These are richly pigmented with over 50 different hues to choose from. The pens come in different tip sizes as well, allowing for murals as well as fine detail. Quality of materials is the priority of Redberry Hues, and our products reflect this.
